Guillermo 'Memo' Correa Executive Chef

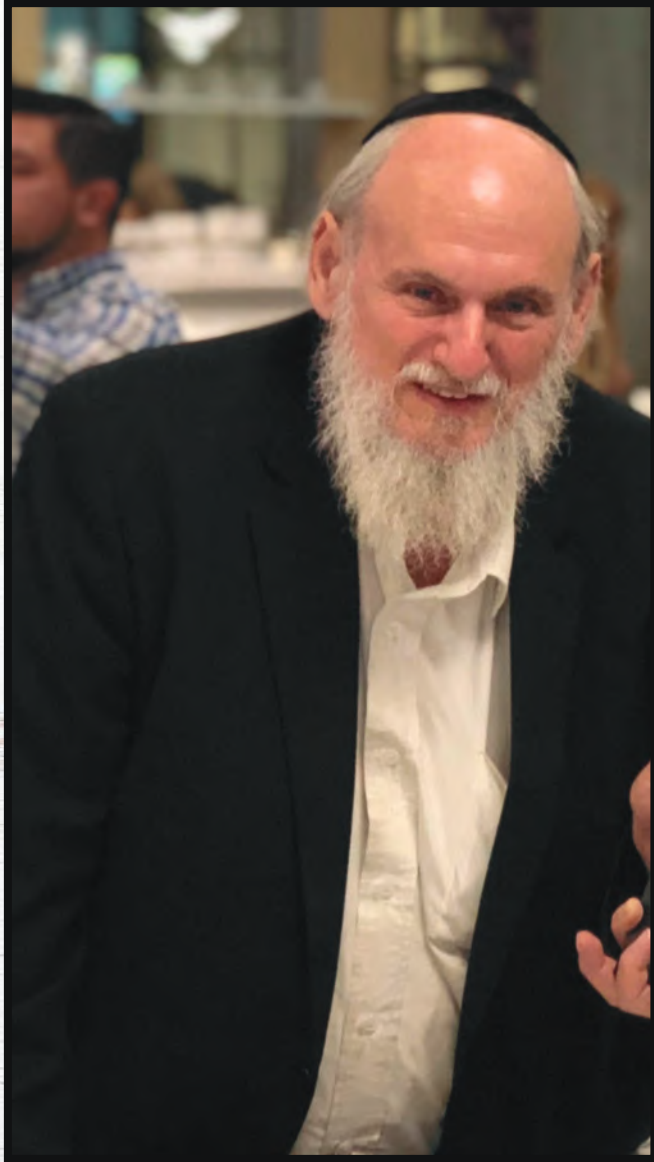

Eager to introduce his epicurean mastery to San Diego, Chef Guillermo Correa is joining us to lead a team of specialized chefs and culinary professionals. He launched his career in the US with stints at both Hilton and Hyatt Hotels and quickly rose in the ranks. Recognizing his inherent talents, Stuart Morginstin invited him to join Danziger Kosher Catering where he remained at the helm as Executive Chef for over 30 years. Since becoming an integral part of the team, Chef Guillermo has amassed an impressive array of awards, including the Grand Prize of the National Pastry Competition and the Gold Medal for Plated Entrees. He also spent the last three decades with the Morginstin family creating innovative, gourmet experiences at world-class Passover programs including the Arizona Biltmore.

Daniel Anor Executive Pastry Chef

Hailing from Israel is internationally acclaimed pastry chef Daniel Anor, renowned for his magnificent and delectable confections. Chef Daniel specializes in French confectionery, baking and chocolate, vegan and gluten-free pastry. He honed his craft working in Israel's most prestigious hotels and furthered his studies at both the Ecole Lenôtre in Paris and l'École Valrhona Tain l'Hermitage. Chef Daniel is a beloved mentor to other chefs as an instructor at Bishulim, the authority on culinary arts in Israel; and serves as a consultant to bakeries and restaurants around the world

Nissim

Saal

Cantor Nissim Saal grew up loving chazanut listening to Yossele Rosenblatt. In the last few years he started studying cantorial and opera music in earnest, and today there is no cantorial enthusiast who does not admire his rare abilities.

With an impressive and powerful voice, and an extraordinary vocal range, he took social media by storm with videos from his live performances and music videos.

To date, he has performed in the most important halls in Israel: the Tel Aviv Hall of Culture, the Israeli Opera House, and the International Convention Center in Jerusalem, as well as in the USA and other countries. He has performed with renowned choirs and symphony orchestras with leading conductors.

In 2023, he sang the "Kel Male Rachamim" prayer at the ceremony marking International Holocaust Remembrance Day, at the UN. Since 2023 he serves as the Chief Cantor of the legendary Yeshurun synagogue in Jerusalem.

Speakers In Residence

Rabbi Gideon Black

Rabbi Gideon Black is the CEO of New York & New Jersey NCSY. His team of 50 staff engage more than 6500 Jewish teens annually, providing them with transformative Jewish experiences that enhance their Jewish identity and connection to Israel. From 2011-2021, he served as OU-JLIC's campus rabbi at NYU and then as its Director of Professional Recruitment and Leadership Development.

Born and raised in the UK, Rabbi Black studied in Israel at Yeshivat Har Etzion and the Gruss Kollel. He received his law degree from University College London before moving to New York to study at Yeshiva University, where he received semicha and an MA in Jewish Philosophy. He also completed Columbia Business School's Developing Leaders Program.

A sought-after speaker and educator, Rabbi Black engages audiences of all backgrounds with his passion for Torah and his front-line experience working with teens and college students. Rabbi Black lives in Englewood, NJ, with his wife Aliza and their 4 children.

Aliza Black

Aliza Black is the Founder & CEO of SwiftHealth, a concierge urgent care company. Aliza's team offers leading medical care in the comfort of one's own home, as well as virtual telehealth appointments and IV vitamin infusion treatments. SwiftHealth was launched on the success of SwiftTest, which offered concierge Covid-19 testing in private homes, schools, camps and corporate offices. Before the pandemic, Aliza spent a decade working in emergency medicine in New York hospitals.

Aliza is a graduate of YU's Stern College and qualified as a certified Physician Assistant at Pace University - Lennox Hill Hospital. Aliza studied in Jerusalem at Midreshet HaRova and worked at Yad Vashem's International School for Holocaust Studies.

Aliza loves spending time with her family in nature and is an avid skier and tennis player.

Elan Kornblum

Known as "The Restaurant Guy", Elan Kornblum started the Great Kosher Restaurants Magazine in 2003 (way before social media) and ever since has revolutionized the way people get information about the kosher restaurant industry. He expanded his online media network to be the leading source for kosher restaurants which includes many platforms, along with the world's largest kosher group on Facebook, Great Kosher Restaurants Foodies, with over 100,000 members.

He has eaten at over 2000 kosher restaurants on 4 continents and is considered to be the #1 kosher restaurant influencer. He has been instrumental on where diners go out to eat and has bridged the gap as a liaison between customer and owner by teaching lessons, positive dialogue and respecting when reviewing.

He has launched numerous social projects including a Facebook group of over 1,000 which assists in getting volunteers at funerals and for a minyan; the #foodieforward project that has helped special needs children and families in need enjoy their time at restaurants; and #foodiefitness, to get more people to be active, all while enjoying their dining experiences. His group became a command center overnight with the outbreak of the war in Israel which led to countless projects and chats to assist those living and fighting in Israel. We are also privileged to have Elan as a host of the program.

Alyssa Schechter

VIP, Camp Director

For the past 16 years, Alyssa Schechter has been intimately involved in developing, overseeing, and executing day camp programming throughout the Jewish community. Most recently, she worked at Camp Lavi in Pennsylvania. Her love of children compelled her to dedicate her Shabbatot to the Young Israel of Lawrence Cedarhurst where she revamped the Youth Program. She is also beloved at HAFTR High School, where she organizes student activities. What sets her apart is her ability to make sure every child is engaged and has a rewarding experience. Besides her wealth of experience, Alyssa has a passion for teaching. She earned a Masters in elementary education and special education and used that to passionately engage 1st-year students in HAFTR's Early Childhood division for many years. She also enjoys swimming and traveling with her husband and three children.
