SCHOLARS IN RESIDENCE

Rabbi Yosef Albo

Rabbi Yosef Albo was born in Israel and lived in the Dominican Republic for five years before his family settled in Brooklyn, NY. There, he began his diverse formal Jewish education, studying at various Yeshivot, including Ateret Torah, Chaim Berlin, Ohr Sameach (Jerusalem), Ner Israel (Baltimore), and Yeshiva University.

With over 20 years of professional rabbinic experience, Rabbi Albo has held leadership roles in both communal life and education. He is currently the Director of Jewish Life at the Jewish Leadership Academy (JLA) in Miami, where he designs and leads Judaic academics and programming, including the JLA Ba’Aretz program. Before joining JLA, he served as the Director of Sephardi Programming at the Ramaz Upper School on Manhattan’s Upper East Side, where he developed the curriculum for honors-level classes in Talmud, Tanach, Halacha, and Jewish Philosophy. His commitment to Jewish communal life is further evidenced by his roles at the Hampton Synagogue, Manhattan Jewish Experience, and Riverdale Jewish Center, as well as numerous scholar-in-residence positions.

Rabbi Albo is a true renaissance man, embodying the principles of Torah U’Madah (The Sciences) and Torah Ve’Umanit (The Arts). He seamlessly integrates the analytical with the creative, the physical with the spiritual. An accomplished artist, illustrator, painter, photographer, composer, and musician, he recently released his third album, "Poor Man’s Prayer."

Rabbi Steven Weil

Rabbi Steven Weil was appointed Chief Executive Officer of the Friends of the Israel Defense Forces in 2020. He began his career as a pulpit Rabbi, first serving at the Young Israel of Oak Park in Detroit, Michigan and then at Congregation Beth Jacob in Beverly Hills, California. In 2009, he assumed the position of Senior Managing Director of the Orthodox Union, leading their institutional advancement and community engagement efforts.

As an internationally recognized scholar and lecturer, Rabbi Weil has lectured in over fifty communities throughout North America and over fifteen countries across Europe, the Middle East and South Africa.

With his life-long love and devotion to the state of Israel, and as an ardent proponent of Jewish education and the future of the Jewish people, Rabbi Weil has channeled his talents and energy to support Israel and its heroic guardians, the men and women of the Israel Defense Forces (IDF). He is a proud father to a IDF lone soldier.

Rabbi Weil attended Yeshiva University, concurrently completing his ordination at the Rabbi Isaac Elchanan Theological Seminary (REITS) and a Master’s in Business Administration from NYU’s Stern School of Business. Rabbi Weil resides in New Jersey with his wife and is a proud father and grandfather.

COMEDIAN
ALEX EDELMAN

ALEX EDELMAN - One of the most critically hailed comedians of his generation, Alex Edelman is best known for solo shows that blur the line between his stand-up comedy roots and narrative-driven storytelling. His last offering, JUST FOR US, played more than 500 performances all over the world before premiering as an HBO original comedy special in April of 2024. Along the way, it made award-winning stops in Melbourne, Edinburgh, London, and numerous sold-out runs in New York, where Edelman joined a small group of comedians who have played on Broadway with a three-month stretch at the Hudson Theatre. He has previously won the prestigious Foster's Best Newcomer prize at the 2014 Edinburgh Fringe Festival for his debut one man show, MILLENNIAL, only the second American ever to have done so and the first since 1997. In 2024 Alex was the recipient of a special Tony Award and was named to the Time100 list of most influential people.

Edelman will next appear in Jerry Seinfeld's directorial debut for Netflix, UNFROSTED, alongside Seinfeld, Melissa McCarthy, Jim Gaffigan, Amy Schumer, Hugh Grant and more. He is currently developing a movie with A24 that he will write, direct and star in with Marc Platt and Stephen Levenson producing. His debut non-fiction collection, I DON'T BELONG HERE, recently sold to Avid Reader at auction.

Beyond his front-of-camera work, Alex was a staff writer on THE GREAT INDOORS for CBS, a story editor on TEENAGE BOUNTY HUNTERS for Netflix, and the head writer for SATURDAY NIGHT SEDER, which raised over $3.5 million for the CDC Covid-19 Emergency Relief Fund, and featured talent such as Andy Cohen, Billy Porter, Dan Levy, Fran Drescher, Idina Menzel, Jason Alexander, Rachel Brosnahan, and many more. He has written for outlets such as The Atlantic and The Believer, has written and produced documentaries for the US State Department and ESPN's "30 for 30" series, and spent more than a decade working as a speechwriter for the Los Angeles Dodgers and the Boston Red Sox.

CANTOR
SAAL

Cantor Nissim Saal was born and raised in Monroe, New York. As a child, he was exposed to Yossele Rosenblatt's captivating performances and fell in love with his works and style. Only two years ago did he begin to study cantorial and opera music in earnest, and today there is no cantorial enthusiast who does not admire his rare abilities. With an impressive and powerful voice, artistic intelligence, and an extraordinary vocal range of about four octaves, he took social media by storm by posting videos from his live performances and publishing high-quality music videos. Beyond his wonderful cantorial performances, Nissim is diverse in his performances, and performs other styles such as opera, musicals, and Chassidic music. To date, he has already performed in the most important halls in Israel: the Tel Aviv Hall of Culture, the Israeli Opera House, and the International Convention Center in Jerusalem, as well as in the USA and other countries. He has performed with renowned choirs and symphony orchestras, with the leading conductors. In 2023, he was chosen to deliver the "Kel Male Rachamim" prayer at the main ceremony marking International Holocaust Remembrance Day, at the United Nations building in New York. In 2022, he was the cantor for the High Holidays at the Chabad of Belgravia in London. Since 2023 he serves as the Chief Cantor of the legendary Yeshurun synagogue in Jerusalem. He lives with his family in New York.
